Country Context

Families are unable to afford basic staples, and food insecurity is rising. Tanzania is one of the world's most generous refugee-hosting countries. However, refugees and asylum seekers live in crowded conditions and face many challenges in meeting their basic needs, such as food, health, and hygiene. Women and girls also face increased risks of gender-based violence. Early marriage and early pregnancy are additional concerns. Most refugees are from Burundi, while others are from the Democratic Republic of Congo. Refugees are not allowed to leave the camps, and government restrictions make life more difficult inside.
