Message to the Donors

On behalf of HHRD Orphan Support staff would like to extend their deepest gratitude to the donors who continue to make our work possible. With lots of positive feedback from the beneficiaries, we have completed the half yearly implementation of Orphan Support Program and “Ramadan, Eid ul Fitr and Eid ul Adha Celebration with our Orphans 2022.” This project met its goals and serves as an example among the stakeholders. Some direct impacts to the beneficiaries were:

- We Supported 22150 orphans from 17 countries and 3 Refugee populations of Palestinian, Syrian and Rohingya Refugees.
- We fulfilled the expectations of orphan children on this joyous day.
- We were able to alleviate the struggles of these children and their families by provision of food packages, cash, scholastic supplies, Eid gifts/parties and fortnightly activities for all our registered beneficiaries.

All our registered OSP children were in attendance in school after the long COVID breaks. The children received Eidi - on Eid ul Fitr and Udhiya meat on Eidul Adha and celebrated both occasions with their neighbors, , family friends and the HHRD staff . Your generous donations have supported them with their education, food packages and the much needed Kifala support. Your donation and the continued follow-up from our HHRD staff has had far-reaching and long-term impact on the children's psychosocial development. They firmly believe that it is a grace, a gift from almighty Allah. Our Orphan's religious faith and belief are strengthened by your act of kindness and your donations were received as a gift from God

Humanity demands that we protect and uplift the most vulnerable among us. Our Orphan's enhanced determination and self-confidence as a result of this support gives them the ability to face any challenges that may come in future.

May Allah's Blessings be with you always.

SUCCESS STORY

Mary Karambu is the third born in a family of four. Together, she and her siblings live in Mwangaza village, Isiolo, Kenya. When both her parents died, her grandmother took care of her. They rely on well-wishers from the neighboring church, which is not enough to sustain the family let alone pay for school fees, uniforms and shoes. As a result, Mary was unable to continue with her education. When HHRD social organizers were notified of her situation by her principal, they acted immediately by registering her into the program.

Mary says, "My ambition is to become a lawyer, thank you HHRD for the support. May Allah bless you."

Because this refugee crisis began more than seventy years ago, some of the camps in Jordan have become well established urban areas. Many Palestinians are citizens of Jordan, yet still overcrowding, poverty and poor construction make life difficult.

Syrian Refugees

Syria gained its independence from France and Great Britain in 1946. Civil war attracted the involvement of international players. Intensive bombardment, chemical weapons and heavy civilian casualties caused millions to flee their homes. In neighboring Jordan, 86% of Syrian refugees are living below the poverty line. HHRD's Orphan Support Program is heavily invested in improving the outcomes for Syrian children by providing school supplies, tuition cash, recreational activities and health screenings.

SUCCESS STORY

Muhammad Sadiq enrolled in OSP in 2012 with three of his siblings. His father was a civil servant and the only breadwinner in the family. When he passed away in 2011, the children and their mother relied on the kindness of neighbors to help them survive. But the neighbors had their own needs to consider, and couldn't provide very much. After three months in the program, when they received their first check, Muhammad says the family couldn't believe it. Alhamdulillah, with support of HHRD, Muhammad was able to focus on his school work. Because of his diligence and hard work, he was admitted to the best medical college in Quetta.

"This all became possible for me due to HHRD's moral, financial and educational support," Muhammad says.

BANGLADESH

HHRD in Bangladesh works with two different but equally deserving populations. We assist Rohingya orphans living in Cox's Bazaar, the world's largest refugee camp, and we provide services for native-born Bangladesh children in three clusters: Dinajpur, Jamalpur and Chittagong. Programming for native-born orphans is carried out in partnership with a local Vetted Partner agencies on the ground.

Cox's Bazaar

Recently, the Forcibly Displaced Myanmar Nationals (Rohingya) have faced persecution, intolerance, statelessness and targeted violence in Rakhine, Myanmar. Such repression has forced Rohingya Muslims to flee to the neighboring country of Bangladesh for shelter and safety. It started back in 1978 for the first time, and again in 1991 and 2016. It was August 2017 that triggered the largest and fastest refugee influx into Bangladesh. Since then, an estimated 1.6 million Rohingya, including more than 400,000 children, have fled from Rakhine, Myanmar to Cox's Bazaar, Bangladesh.

Bangladesh National Clusters

Many children in Bangladesh face persistent abuse and the threat of trafficking. Many girls are forced to marry early, pushing them out of school and into exploitative work. It is estimated that around 6.2 million children across Bangladesh never receive an education. Many parents and widows place their children in orphanages hoping that they will have a better life, but orphanages are overrun and often do not have sufficient supplies to care for all those who live within their walls.

SUCCESS STORIES

Rusina Bibi

Dream: I want to be a doctor

My father's name was Salamat Ullah; he died accidentally while catching fish. After the death of father, my mother and I were living in a village named Garzandia in Rakhine, Myanmar. Our family led a normal life before the crackdown operated by the military took place. In 2017, the Myanmar army started their oppression tactics on our whole township. All the village members moved to Bangladesh.

In 2018, I enrolled in the HHRD orphan sponsorship project and began receiving provisions of food, school supplies, clothes, care and love. I'm now studying in 3rd grade. Beside this, I also memorized a Juz of Quraan Alhamdulillah. I have no words to thank my donor and Helping Hand USA for changing my life in such a big way. Jazakum Allah Khairan.

Mohammad Rayhan

My father's name was Tofail Ahmed and my mother's name is Shofika Khatun. I have an elder brother and a sister named Anwara Banu. My father died of cancer when I was just four years old. He was a day laborer by profession and after he passed, there was nothing left except our home. My oldest brother is working in a poultry farm, trying to support the family with what little he can earn. I love school but I wasn't able to continue because of the cost.

Alhamduillah, it was a tremendous moment that one of the HHRD volunteers came to our home and registered us for a monthly sponsorship. Now we are regularly getting a food allowance, a hygiene and education allowance, and daily teacher supervisions so I can continue my studies amid the COVID-19 crisis. We are so lucky that a donor extended their hand to guide us by providing much needed support. We have no words to thank our generous donors for their endless support. OSP makes a huge difference in my life. I especially appreciate having mentors who can help me make the right decisions as I grow up. Zajakallahu Khairan

HAITI

A history of political strife and natural disasters drained Haiti of its wealth, leaving it the poorest nation in the western hemisphere. HHRD's financial assistance with tuition and school supplies is vital to our orphans and their families. Without it, most of them would be unable to receive an education. OSP in Haiti serves 500 Students, kindergarten to grade twelve, in 3 Clusters: Port-au-Prince, Leogane and Miragoane.

The health, social and educational status of affected people suffered as a result. Before 2012, people of all religions and ethnics were moving freely around Rakhine State.
