Javaid Siddiqi
CEO, Helping Hand for Relief & Development

On behalf of Helping Hand for Relief and Development (HHRD), it is with sincere gratitude that we present our 2024 Annual Report. This past year has been marked by both immense challenges and extraordinary achievements, and we are deeply grateful to Allah (SWT) for the strength and guidance that has enabled us to continue our mission.

In 2024, HHRD remained committed to alleviating suffering and empowering communities worldwide. Our emergency response teams were among the first to reach numerous crises zones, providing critical aid to those affected by natural disasters, conflict, and displacement. From the devastating floods in Afghanistan, Bangladesh, and Kenya to the ongoing humanitarian crises in Gaza and Lebanon, our teams worked tirelessly to deliver food, medical supplies, and essentials.

Beyond emergency relief, we focused on long-term development initiatives to address the root causes of poverty and injustice. Our education programs continued to empower young minds, providing access to quality education and skills training. Our healthcare initiatives reached remote communities, delivering vital medical services and promoting preventive healthcare practices.

We are particularly proud of our efforts to support women and girls, empowering them to become leaders and agents of change. Our programs provided opportunities for women to access education and skills training, enabling them to achieve economic independence and improve their lives.

As we look ahead to the coming year, we pray for peace and an end to the struggles of our brothers and sisters in Palestine and around the world, and we remain steadfast in our mission to alleviate suffering, empower communities, and promote justice.

None of this would be possible without the dedicated support of our donors and partners. Your generosity allows us to make a difference in the lives of countless individuals and families. We are truly thankful for your continued belief in our mission and your commitment to building a better future for all.

May Allah (SWT) bless you.

From Orphan to Graduate: Aya Al-Soufi's Inspiring Journey

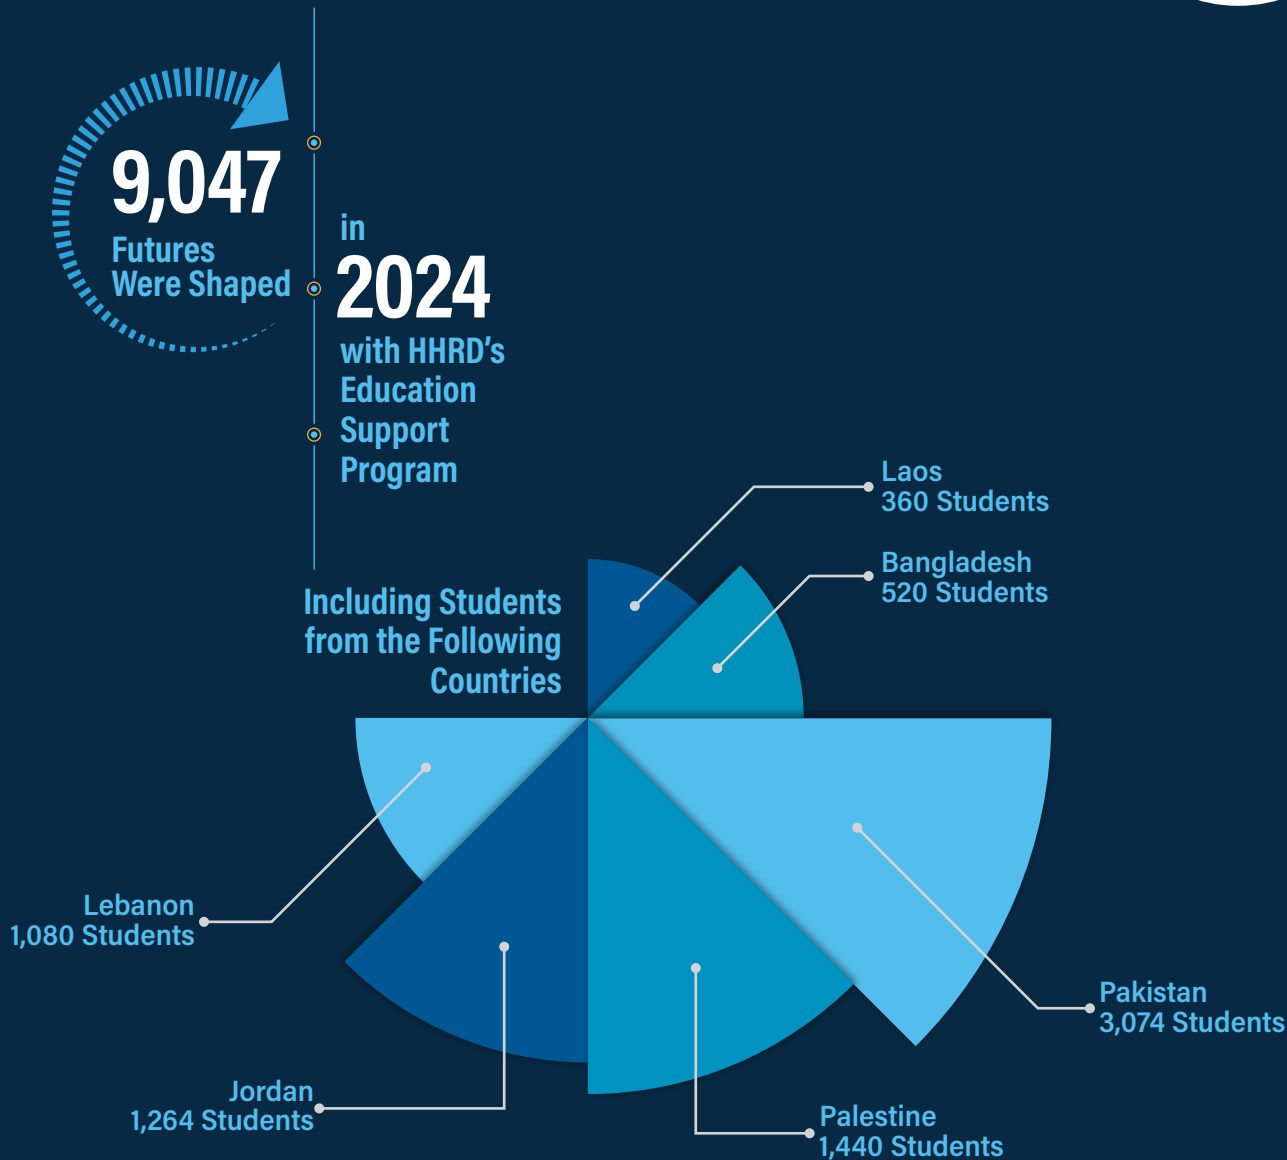

Aya Al-Soufi, once an orphan sponsored by Helping Hand for Relief and Development (HHRD), overcame immense challenges to achieve her dreams. After losing her father at a young age, she lived with her mother and sister in a modest apartment in Jerash Camp, a community struggling with poverty. Her mother worked tirelessly to provide for them, while HHRD's social workers encouraged Aya to excel in her studies.

With HHRD's support, she pursued a degree in Human Resource Management at Jadara University. In February 2024, she proudly graduated with an impressive GPA of 83.9%. Grateful for the generosity of HHRD donors, Aya now aspires to build a successful career and prays for blessings upon those who helped her along the way.

The decision to adjust the sponsorship amount was influenced by factors such as rising inflation, high unemployment rates, and the prevailing geopolitical conditions worldwide.

Patrick's Journey: A Future Fueled by Faith and Determination

At 19, Patrick is the third of five siblings living in the Philippines. His family once lived in the remote parts of their province but relocated to the city after his father's passing. His mother, now a single parent, faced the immense challenge of raising five children. With support from relatives and Helping Hand, she ensured they had the opportunities to grow and succeed.

Currently in Grade 12, Patrick is enrolled in the General Academic Strand (GAS). He dreams of becoming either a teacher or a doctor with deep knowledge of Islam. Just recently, he competed in an Islamic Studies Quiz Bee, reaching the finals.

Now an OSP alumnus, Patrick remains actively involved as a youth volunteer, grateful for the opportunities that have shaped his journey.

In-Kind Gifts Program

Our greatest success was getting containers to Gaza in 2023 and continuing the work in 2024

October 7, 2023, was the beginning of extreme crisis in Palestine. Borders were closed off and organizations were unable to send emergency aid to the people of Palestine for weeks.

Due to the escalating situation in Gaza, hundreds of Palestinians needed medical supplies and aid. Soon there was also a food shortage and a lack of clean water. Thousands were dying, and even more were getting injured. Though HHRD had containers of emergency provisions ready, they were stopped at the Rafah border in Egypt for weeks. The situation felt helpless. However, HHRD persisted in providing aid. We partnered with UNRWA (United Nations Relief and Work Agency) to send 5 containers in 2023 with food, diapers, and water filtration supplies. Soon after, we were able to send 2 more convoys directly into Gaza where live distributions took place.

In a time of disaster and little control, our In-Kind Gifts Program continues to run to provide dire aid wherever it is needed, however it is needed.

Give Water, Give Life

Water And Sanitation Hygiene Program

HHRD's Water and Sanitation Hygiene Program is constantly developing and growing to provide water and sanitation systems to refugee and impoverished communities. Through this program, HHRD builds water wells and bathroom units to provide clean water for entire communities.

This program recognizes the critical importance of clean water and sanitation for:

- Improved Health: Access to clean water significantly reduces waterborne diseases, leading to improved health outcomes, especially for children and the elderly.
- Economic Empowerment: Reliable access to water supports agriculture and other livelihoods, contributing to economic growth and poverty reduction.
- Environmental Sustainability: By implementing sustainable water management practices, we help protect water resources and prevent water scarcity.

Safeguarding Health: Clean Water Solutions in Bangladesh

Mariam Begum manages her household, including caring for her children and elderly parents. Her family had been reliant on a nearby contaminated water source, which frequently led to illnesses and disrupted their daily lives. Medical expenses further strained their limited financial resources. Mariam and her family faced recurring health issues due to unsafe drinking water. The children often missed school, and her elderly parents' health deteriorated because of waterborne diseases. The lack of a clean water source close to their home meant long walks to fetch water that was still unsafe for consumption.

The installation of a deep tube well near Mariam's home has significantly improved her family's quality of life. With access to clean and arsenic-free water, her children are healthier and able to attend school regularly. Her parents' health has also improved, reducing the family's medical expenses and giving them peace of mind.

"This well has transformed our lives. We no longer worry about illnesses caused by dirty water. I feel hopeful for my children's future," Mariam shared with gratitude.

Youth Empowerment Program Nurturing the Leaders of Tomorrow

Youth Empowerment Program

HHRD's Youth Empowerment Program inspires young people to become agents of change. This initiative offers immersive field experiences for youth aged 18-25 with trips to Haiti, Pakistan, Kenya, and Jordan, providing firsthand exposure to humanitarian work. Participants visit refugee camps, interact with beneficiaries, and actively engage in healthcare, relief, and development activities alongside our dedicated staff.

Through HHRD's Youth Empowerment Program, students can volunteer with us, cultivate their own projects, and build a sense of connection with our global Ummah.

Young students have pioneered the shipment of In-Kind containers with their schools, helped to fund various projects, and even traveled to meet direct HHRD beneficiaries and work hands-on on specific projects.

In 2024, you helped empower 10,402 youths benefit the world around them

Hayyan is an HHRD Youth who has become a part of the global family, working to benefit everyone around him

Hayyan M. began volunteering with the HHRD Houston regional office with his high school Muslim Students Association (MSA). Long after he graduated, his volunteerism did not stop. Hayyan showed up every weekend to sort and pack boxes to send In-Kind containers. He helped the regional office by volunteering for events and eventually becoming Volunteer Lead, organizing entire volunteering events on his own.

It was through his involvement that Hayyan learned about the Youth for Africa and Youth for Jordan trips. He embarked on both. On the Youth for Africa trip Hayyan helped provide water from water wells, distribute food and play with the children of the community. On the Youth for Jordan trip Hayyan helped assess the needs of the education facilities, witnessed the deliverance of a restroom unit to the refugee camp, and distribute toys from the current In-Kind shipment.

In Hayyan's words, "HHRD is a second home for me in every way. I can see the parts of my family in need and I can actually do something for them. The duas they make for me... I don't need anything else in the world."

Amidst Turmoil HHRD Provides a Ray of Hope

Abu Islam, his wife, and their children, 9-year-old Islam and 6-year-old Fatima Zahra, resided in a mountainous Atlas Mountains house. With the nearest pharmacy three hours away, Abu Islam struggled to obtain medicine for his ailing son. As night fell, an earthquake struck, causing their house to collapse.

Amid the chaos, Abu Islam could not save Islam, who succumbed to the tragedy. Stranded for hours, they endured the cold until authorities reached them. HHRD emerged as a beacon of compassion, providing mattresses, blankets, food parcels, and personal hygiene items. Acknowledging the trauma, they also brought toys for Fatima Zahra. Abu Islam expressed deep gratitude to HHRD's generous donors and dedicated team for extending a helping hand during their darkest hour, ensuring the family's access to basic necessities.
